

International

Name: Konstantin Ewald

Position: Partner

Institut: Osborne Clarke

Branch: Lawyer

Topic of the Speech:

Aimbots and Wallhacks before the court – a glimpse back on the first anti-cheat lawsuit of eSports history.

Biography:

Konstantin Ewald is a lawyer and partner at Osborne Clarke, Cologne.

One of the focuses of his occupation is the extensive consultation of national, as well as international businesses of the computer gaming branch. Thus, Konstantin Ewald is working for listed computer gaming publishers and several developers. He negotiates contracts of game developments and its publications on a regular basis.

For some time past, he has furthermore been advising businesses of eSports and defended the interests of the league operator in a lawsuit against a suspended team in Cologne.